

Do you think the WW2 victims of forced labour including prisoners of concentration camp on the shipyard should be commemorated?

What and whose history should be commemorated on the shipyard site?

Is it important to have public access to the memorial sites on the shipyard for future generations? Why?

Please comment on design..